Mr. Tustin offered the following:

Whereas, in the irens of the New York Tribune, of the 30th ultime, appeared the following communication from Washington:

"Abstition School Booke—The series of school radius used in the public schools of Washington being so far an abellitien publication that it contains Mr. Lincoln's apsech at Gettysburg, an effort is now making to throw it out and introduce a reader prepared for the Southern market with a careful unission of all resirence to the recent war."

And whereas the allegations thus made, doubties without intention to de wrong, resite what is alike foreign to the fact, and, if true, desegratory to the character to the members of this Board, especially of such as constitute the Text-Book Committee. "Therefore—

Resolved, That the Board of Trustees of the Public Schools, anteriaining great respect for the New York Tribune, and for the loyal press throughout the issue, hereby enter a denial of the existence of any purpose or desire to be governed in its action by considerations other than these having for an object the highest moral and mental advancement of these committed to its care.

Resolved, With a view fully to relieve the Text Book Committee from the imputation which seems to be conveyed in the published statement alluded to, a nommittee be appointed to accertain and report whence originated the information upon which the same was heard.
